

THURSDAY, JULY 14. 1743.

our last arrived a Mail from France, and Two from Flanders.

Paris, July 1.

THE Austrians are still in the Ferrarese, and as for the Spanish Army, they are exactly in the same Situation they were. It is true they give out, that they intend speedily to march towards their Enemies, and to offer them Battle; but the Spaniards are so accustomed to talk much, and do little, that lay no manner of Stress on what they say; especially since all our Advices agree, that their Army is still in a very weak Condition. Their Artillery still remains the same, as also their Powder, and other Ammunition.

Bologna, July 2. The Austrians have sent some Engineers to view the Passes of the Mountains on the Confinement of the Republic of Genoa, but with what View is not as yet appear. They carry on the Fortifications of Modena with prodigious Application, and the Workmen employed therein are relieved every other Day; all the Expence is defrayed by the City, who yet are no Judges of the Reasons which induced them. The Administrator of the Duchy, and General Senfani, are sent for Carpi, which are the Head Quarters of Count Daun, in order to be present at a grand Council of War.

Berlin, July 10. The King applies himself with equal Attention to Military and Civil Affairs. After reviewing his Troops, he has caused a strict Enquiry to be made into the State of the Manufactures; and has appointed a Committee, consisting of three Privy Counsellors, to consider of the Methods most proper for encouraging and promoting them. The King receiv'd, a few Days ago, a Courier dispatch'd from his Britannick Majesty, with the News of the important Victory gain'd the 27th of last Month at Dettingen by the Arms of the Allies. His Majesty resolv'd upon this, to send a son of the first Distinction to compliment the King of Great Britain thereupon, to assure him of the great Satisfaction this News has given him, and, at the same time, to make to his Majesty certain Overtures, which said to be of the last Importance.

Paris, July 11. On Monday in the Evening Baron de M., Envoy Extraordinary from the Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, receiv'd an Express from the Army of Prince Charles, and set out the next Morning early for the Camp of that Prince. As yet we are ignorant of the Design of his Journey; all that we are told is, that he will be absent about a Fortnight, and that as soon as he returns, he will set out for Vienna. Great preparations are making for the Siege of Straubingen, also for that of Ingoldstadt; and great Quantities of Ammunition, which are to be employed in those Sieges, pass by this Place.

Hannover, July 14. M. Noailles, who decamp'd in the Night of the 12th from Offenbach, without Best of Honour, after burning his Magazines, has taken his Route to Sprieglingen and Geran towards Oppenheim. The Austrian Hussars have carried off the Pontons the French had thrown over the Neckar, and our Hussars have been to put Part of Albiac under Contribution; which has thrown the Country into the greater Confusion, and this was a Visit that nobody expected; and they apprehend from thence, that this Province will become suddenly the Seat of most bloody War. In the mean time, our Hussars have made such a prodigious Booty, that they have been pleas'd to bestow, by Way of Bounty, on the Peasants of Suabia, three Waggon-loads of Baggage; and this, on the other Hand, has given the People such a Notion of a Military Life, that no less than 600 of them have determin'd to leave their Families, and to go and pick up Estates at the Expence of the French.

Brussels, July 19. According to some private Advices from Frankfort, they were lately in great Hopes of a Pacification, on account of certain Conferences held by General Chancelos, and an English Officer of Distinction, with M. Noailles; but it since appears, that those were Military Conferences, and related only to the treatment Prisoners are to receive on both Sides. It is said, that the French Ministers at the Imperial Court have no Stone unturn'd, to keep the Emperor fix'd to their Alliance; and that his most Christian Majesty has, for this Purpose, written him a Letter, full of the strongest Assurances of Protection and Support; but as to the Rumours that have been lately scatter'd, of his retiring from that City to Strasburgh, or elsewhere, they are all together void of Foundation. The Emperor, the Imperial Prince, and the Elector of Cologne, are, as these Letters say, in an Interest entirely opposite to that of the French, and are continually pressing the Emperor, in the most earnest Manner, to close with the Propositions made thro' Prince William of Hesse; and, it was thought, he had come to such a Resolution, when these Letters came away.

Extract from the Paris Almanac.

July 19, 1743. Besides the 8000 Men with which the King has lately augmented his Cavalry and Dragoons, his Majesty has declared that every Troop of the latter shall be increased to 70 Effective Men.

The King has just now directed a new Levy of Militia, which will be 36,000 Men for the Cities, and the like Number for the great Towns and Villages.

His Majesty has also given Directions for draughting ten Men out of every Company of the Militia in Flanders, which are to serve as Recruits in the Army lately arrived from Bavaria.

All the Officers of the Life Guard, Gens d'Armes, and Light Horse, have had Orders to hold themselves in Readiness to join the Army of M. Noailles, in order to supply the Loss of such as were killed in the late Action at Dettingen.

The Marshals Maillebois and Belleisle are on the Point of setting out, one for his Command, and the other for his Government.

The Court receiv'd lately an Express from Frankfort, by which the Emperor inform'd his Majesty of the Provisional Cessation of Arms which he had been oblig'd to conclude with the Queen of Hungary.

On the 15th and 16th arriv'd two extraordinary Couriers, dispatch'd by M. Noailles, with Advice, that the Allies were making the necessary Dispositions for passing the Rhine at Mentz and Coblenz; and that Prince Charles of Lorraine was also taking the Route to Luxembourg, which had oblig'd M. Noailles to repair to that River also, and to take such Measures as their Conduct render most convenient.

On Thursday last a Courier on the Road from Lyons to Paris, with Dispatches from the Infant Don Philip, was assassinated, and all his Packets taken from him.

The Emperor is expected at Strasburg, where, it is said, his Imperial Majesty will make his Residence.

On the 14th we receiv'd a Confirmation of the taking of 100 Carriages of ours, before-mentioned; the same Advices say, that of 200 Grenadiers, sustained by the Royal Regiment of Horse of Roussillon, who served as an Escort to the Sick, and to the Baggage, not above 20 had escap'd, the rest being cut to Pieces, and the Sick massacred. The Officer who commanded this Detachment is dangerously wounded, and the Baggage of the Prince de Guise, and many other principal Officers, taken.

We learn from Savoy, that the Infant Don Philip expects another Reinforcement from Spain; that it does not by any Means appear, that the Accommodation between the Courts of Madrid and Turin is at all certain; especially since the Inhabitants of Savoy have lately receiv'd Orders to furnish Salt for a whole Year.

ANTI-SYPHILICON
THE only short and most infallible
Cure in the Universe for the VENEREAL Disease, from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and dangerous Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are so roughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.
Fresh Infections, call'd CLEAPS, with all their attending Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Venereal Matter, on one Hand, or a venereal Gleet or Weakness, on the other.
And the most inveterate Degree of the French Disease, attended with Nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings, and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, are overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely red than by Salivation, Inunction, or any other bloody whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without pairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as to bespeak it the only apposite Remedy or true Venereal Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands have their great Joy experienced.
It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Discomfort requires Confinement; but may be taken, and be accomplished, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.
Those who suspect they have received an Injury, by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.
All such likewise as doubt they have some remaining relics of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it entirely themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind; for it admits no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on Account, in all scorbutick, scrophulous, and even venereal Eruptions or Foulnesses of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one than any other Medicine yet known can by ten.
The Price of this most Noble ANTI-SYPHILICON is Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is pointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, ready sealed up with a distinct Instructions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons who are ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease, may perfectly understand their own Condition, and know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is rooted out of their Bodies.
Note. Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.

The Royal BEAUTIFYING FLUID.
SO exceedingly valued by Ladies of Quality and all who have used it, for its transcendent excellency in Beautifying the Face, Neck, and Hands to the most exquisite Perfection possible, is to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toyshop at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand.
It gives an inexpressible fine Air to the Features of the Face on the Spot, and a surprising Handfomness to the Neck and Hands, which it immediately makes exceedingly smooth, soft, and delicately white.
Nothing in the World can sooner or more certainly take away all disagreeable Redness, Spots, Pimples, Heats, Rashes, Morpew, Worms in the Face, Marks of the Small Pox, Sun-burn, or any other Discolouring, nor remove all Wrinkles so perfectly, for it quickly makes the Skin become so incomparably fine, clear, plump, soft, and beautifully fair, as to cause Admiration in the Beholders.
It really gives a most engaging resplendent Brightness to the whole Countenance, and causes sparkling Life, Spirit, and a juvenile Bloom to reign in every Feature, and yet is nothing of Paint, but far exceeds it, by its bringing the Skin, whether of the Face, Neck, or Hands, and tho' brown, red, or rough to a natural, youthful Fairness, Smoothness, and most charming Delicacy, which Paint only faintly imitates; neither is this ROYAL BEAUTIFIER prepared from the least Particle of Mercury, or any Thing Metaline, but is perfectly harmless and may be given inwardly even to Children. It has a pleasant Scent, will not soil the finest Lawn, and is very agreeable to use.
But these its admirable Properties, by which it vastly exceeds any Thing whatever for the like Purpose, have occasioned many to imitate it, under various other Names, beware therefore of such Impositions, the true ROYAL BEAUTIFYING FLUID, that has given such universal Satisfaction to so many Ladies of Distinction, being only to be had at Mr. RADFORD's Toyshop above-mentioned at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with Directions, and no where else in England.
